TO

Amend the Law relating to the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors in Ireland on Saturdays, and for other purposes connected therewith.

A.D. 1905.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1. It shall not be lawful for any person to sell or expose for sale intoxicating liquor, or to open or keep open any premises for the sale of the same, on Saturdays after nine o'clock at night; and the provisions of every Act (in regard to penalties and otherwise) relating to selling or exposing for sale, or purchasing, intoxicating 10 liquor, or opening or keeping open any premises for the sale of intoxicating liquor, or being present in or upon any such premises at any hour, shall be amended in this particular, and shall apply as if the hour of nine o'clock was specified therein as the hour at which licensed premises are required to be closed on Saturdays. Where 15 any business, other than the sale of intoxicating liquors, is carried on in the licensed premises the whole of such premises shall be closed at the hour aforesaid, unless the portion of the same in which such sale of intoxicating liquors is carried on is structurally separated from the remainder of the building.
- 20 2. This Act may be cited as the Intoxicating Liquors Sale on Saturdays (Ireland) Act, 1905. This Act shall commence and come into operation on the tenth day of October one thousand nine hundred and five.
